

You are cordially invited to attend
The State of the Town of Oxford
Business & Economic Development Forum
featuring
First Selectman George Temple, Esq.
with special reports from local business leaders

presented by

Wednesday, September 27th – 7:30 am – 9:30 am
Northeast STIHL
2 Patriot Way, Oxford

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Please join us for this Special Forum to be held in the Conference Center of Northeast STIHL's newly-constructed, state-of the art Northeast Distribution Center located in the heart of Oxford's Industrial District.

Under the leadership of Oxford First Selectman George Temple, Esq. the Town of Oxford has experienced a period of strong economic growth & development, and remains one of Connecticut's fastest-growing communities. Today, Oxford is home to a growing cluster of corporate offices, manufacturing & R&D facilities, regional distribution centers, commercial/retail centers and luxury housing developments.

Following his Address and a Q&A with the audience, the First Selectman will join with a Panel of Local Business Leaders to include:

- Ken Weinstein, Senior Vice President, Newtown Savings Bank
- Casey McGrath, Regional Manager, Northeast STIHL
- Colin Kelly, PE, Vice President, CPV Towantic Energy
- Patrick Charmel, President & CEO, Griffin Health Services

FREE for Greater Valley Chamber Members & Guests
Coffee and light refreshments will be served.

RSVP by Monday, September 25th online at bit.ly/ValleyChamberEvents; call 203-925-4981 or by fax to 203.925.4984. YES! I/we plan to attend. Please register the following people from our company:
