

Long Range Planning Committee Membership

The Long Range Planning Committee (LRPC) consists of 9 members appointed by the Board of Selectmen. These members are as follows; Richard Burke – Chairman, Rose McKinnon – Vice Chairman, Alan Hertzmark, Wayne Johnson, Sam Peterson, Blake Denham, Fred D’Amico, and Karsten Olsen. There are 3 Democrats, 3 Republicans and 3 Unaffiliated, representing an even distribution of political representation on the advisory panel.

The LRPC members have been residents of Oxford from 2 years to 24 plus years. Three of the members have young children in the Oxford school system and one of the members is an Oxford Ambulance Corp. EMT volunteer, as another member is a volunteer Oxford Fireman. Some of the LRPC members also serve on other Boards, Commissions and Committees, while others engage in community projects or worthwhile causes.

The panel members have a broad range of expertise consisting of: IT & Finance, Program Planning, Marketing & Community/Business Development, Law & Medical, Engineering & Surveying, Environmental & Teaching. Together, these members possess the qualities and have the interest necessary to produce a well- balanced plan for Oxford’s future.

The member’s diverse backgrounds, experiences and the level of commitment will be instrumental as they are LRPC Liaisons to the town organizations in completing the Long Range Plan. Please see the Responsibility Matrix below for reference.

The LRPC members meet on the 2nd and 4th Thursday every month. Meetings are open for the public to attend as a member of the audience.
