

INFORMATION AND SUPPORT SERVICES

Office of Victim Services (OVS).....	1-800-822-8428
Court and Custody Status Notification (CT SAVIN).....	1-877-846-3428
Department of Correction Victim Services Unit.....	1-888-869-7057
Domestic Violence (CCADV).....	1-888-774-2900
Sexual Assault (The Alliance).....	1-888-999-5545
Drunk Driving Victims (MADD).....	1-800-544-3690
Homicide (Survivors of Homicide).....	1-860-257-7388
Infoline (United Way).....	211
Elder Abuse.....	1-888-385-4225
Child Abuse Care Line.....	1-800-842-2288
Office of the Victim Advocate.....	1-888-771-3126
Advocacy for Persons with Disabilities (OPA).....	1-800-842-7303
Immigration Services (USCIS).....	1-800-375-5283

CRIME VICTIM RIGHTS

Crime victims have certain rights including the right to:

- Be reasonably protected from the accused.
- Get information about court dates, and the arrest, conviction, sentence, imprisonment, and release of the offender.
- Request restitution for crime-related expenses.
- Apply to OVS for financial help for certain crime-related expenses (1-888-286-7347).
- Ask the court to return property taken for the investigation.

For more information about crime victim rights, please call the OVS Helpline at 1-800-822-8428.

Police department and telephone number

Case number and court location