Director's Report

Fall programs have begun.

Trick or Trunk – Tuesday, October 31. Undecorated cars/trunks attending Trick or Trunk was discussed. The flyer does state that cars/trunks are to be decorated. Next year the flyer will be re done to highlight trunks should be decorated.

Posypanko Park – The security cameras were installed.

Public Works said it would be better to use black top instead of millings to pave over the tennis courts.

Committee and Liaison Reports

Jackson Cove Committee did a site walk of the park. Recommendations -

1. Signage needs to be cleaned up, redone with larger lettering and or relocated.
2. Discussion on storing the tractor in a portable shed or enlarging the storage shed.
3. Clean up the brush along the shore and plant low growing ground cover to reduce erosion.
4. More bat and bird houses.
5. Jackson Cove or beach signage at the Jackson Cove Road intersection.

The phone poles dividing the parking from the grass will be lined up evenly and cut into sections to allow clear walking onto to grass.

Renovating the concession stand/storage building at Posypnako Park, in the future, was discussed.

Other Business - None
